Altogether prospects for the fall season are about as good as could be asked, especially in view of the comparative dullness which marked the latter part of the summer. W. W. Coney, of the Moores-Coney Co., expresses himself recently as being very much pleased with business so far this year, even August, which was on the whole not an active month, being a good one with this company. A sale of 75,000 barrels of Lehigh cement, for use in the foundations of the new million-dollar power-house of the Union Gas Electric Co., was made recently by the company, being one of the largest of the season. The other material contracts for the structure are still to be let. Walter Pursell, president of the Pursell-Grand Co., reports a good increase in business as compared with August, with plenty of small jobs and a fair number of large ones to look forward to during the fall. The company is pushing Dennison interlocking tile on this market. The material has been handled by the company for some time, but it is understood that facilities for deliveries are now better than ever before, making sales easier to handle. MEMPHIS BUILDING MARKET FIRM. Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 20.-- The building material trade holds firm, with a little lassitude folowing the miner strike agitations, but before the end of the month the normal activity will be on. Car supplies are a little short. Many of the firms will have...
