This was the dream of those noble statesmen who realized that the English in India are for a high and noble purpose and who with the motives of philanthropy introduced the beneficent policy of English education. CHAPTER III. 1881. The Political Aspects Of The Country. --The year 1881 will ever remain memorable in the history of Indian administration for the restoration to native dynasties of the two important Feudatory kingdoms viz. Baroda and Mysore, These acts on the part of the paramount power evinced the sincerity of its professions and cemented the loyalty of all the feudatory chieftains. They were both acts of pure justice and proved beyond a doubt the sense of duty of the English people. Lord Dalhousie had, for pretexts much flimsier than those which were available in the above cases, made large and important annexations. The Maharaja of Mysore was installed by His Excellency the Governor of Madras on the 25th March. He owed this happy consummation to the righteousness of his cause aided by the sense of justice of that eminent statesman Lord Halifax. The father of the Maharaja who was installed had tried his best to get back the kingdom and to induce the British Government to redeem the promise given half a century ago that the Raj would be restored as soon as equilibrium of the finances had been secured....
