MEMOIR liaetijt Luther, the illustrious German divine and reformer of the church, was the son of John Lotter, or Lauther, (which name our reformer changed to Luther, ) and of Margaret Lindeman, and was born atEisleben.atown of Saxony, in the countyof Mansfeldt, November 10th, 1483. His father s extraction and condition were originally but mean, and his occupation that of a miner j* it is probable, however, that by his application and industry he improved the circumstances of his family, for we find him afterwards raised to the magistracy of a considerable rank and dignity in his province. Luther was initiated very early into letters; and, having learned the rudiments of grammar while he continued at home with his parents, was, at the ago of thirteen, sent to a school at Magdeburg. Here he remained only one year, for the circumstances of his parents were at that time so very low, and so insufficient to maintain him, that he was forced, as Melchior Adam relates, Mendicato vivere pane, to beg his * I am a peasant s son, and my father, grandfather, and greatgrandfather were all common peasants. My father went to Mansfeldt, where he got employment in the mines; and there I was born. That I should ever become bachelor of arts, doctor of divinity, and what not, seemed not to be written in the stars. How I must have surprised folks by turning monk; and then, again, by changing the brown...
