Authorhouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 184 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.1in. x 0.5in. Popcorn and Soda Pop is a lifetime collection of 63 poems collected into two books, Popcorn and Soda Pop, and Hamburgers and Hotdogs, have been combined into one book, Popcorn and Soda Pop, which Mr. Warner has written over the past 55 years. Mr. Warner gave his poem book the name he did because he believes people should pick their literature as if it was food on a big menu because taste buds are different for each person. Mr. Warner explains his revolutionary concept in much greater detail in his book in essay form. Mr. Warners poems are about what he thinks and feels about the world. Many of them are humorous; many of them are about love the universal interest of people everywhere; some of them are about resentment and anger; some of them are about universal themes: Christmas; Easter; St. Valentines Day; Memorial Day; Mothers Day; Fathers Day; a long one about a despised ex-president; and one about the hostages illegally seized by the Iranians! There are also some parodies of some famous poems. Some of Mr. Warners poems are poems that tell a story, which is his favorite type of poem. One of them, The Rose I found in the Bible is his favorite, the longest, and he believes, his best one! Mr. Warner has included a short history of some of his poems with the hope that this history will be of interest to his readers. If you like poems with lots of rhythm and rhymes, long poems, medium sized poems, and short poems, about a verity of subjects, you will enjoy Mr. Warners poems, which he has written for the entertainment and amusement of readers everywhere.
