Shooting Stars

By Aida G Roque

America Star Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A grandmother who loves reading in the comfort of her garden and loves to create stories and poetry for her grandchildren. It's all about the beauty of our planet Earth and all of the fascinating creatures. Shooting Stars are the most enchanting creation that we can use in our story. Cousin Zion and Isla, the main characters, love to play outside and learn to appreciate our magnificent planet Earth. They also share their love for poetry and other children's rhymes. My goal here is to motivate the children to go out and explore nature, while at the same time creating new outdoor games. It is also important to spend quality time with parents, friends and even neighbors. The interaction of playing outside, has emphasis on their social, physical and mental skills. These are the valuable skills I learned during my time growing up from the 50's generation. My generation didn't have the powerful tools in technology and only taught us that our toys need to be fixed and not to be thrown...
