0.3in. Through the mesquite a horse moved deviously, following the crooked trail of least resistance. A man was in the saddle and in front of him a little boy nodding with sleep. The arm of the rider cradled the youngster against the lurches of the ponys gait. The owner of the arm looked down at the tired little bundle it was supporting. A wistful tenderness was in the leathery face. To the rest of the world he was a man of iron. To this wee bit of humanity he was a nurse, a playmate, a slave.

Were most to the creek now, son. Onct we get there, well throw off and camp. You can eat a snack and tumble right off to bye-low land, he promised. The five-year-old smiled faintly and snuggled closer. His long lashes drooped again to the soft cheeks. With the innocent selfishness of a child he accepted the love that sheltered him from all troubles. A valley opened below the mesa, the trail falling abruptly almost from the hoofs of the horse. Beaudry drew up...
