On the contrary, successful mining is one of the greatest embodiments of the principle. The difference between the careful manager and the careless one is apt to be the difference between profit and loss. Carefulness in management does not mean merely the prevention of what would be obvious wastes, such as allowing supplies to be slovenly thrown away, or permitting them to deteriorate, which comes to the same thing; but also it means what may be vastly more important, viz., the prevention of the unapparent wastes, especially of labor, by the continuance of uneconomic practices. Even in such an ancient and simple thing as the art of shovelling there may be enormous waste of man-power. The shoveller may be provided with a tool of the wrong design and size. He may handle it in such a...
